

CRIM 135

---

CRIM 135 Introduction to Canadian Law

3 Credits

This course provides learners with an overview of Canadian Law and the Canadian legal system. Learners will study the major sources and types of law, the Canadian Constitution, legal reasoning, precedent, and statutory interpretation. Mainstream, Feminist, Critical, as well as Indigenous perspectives on law and justice will be explored. The court system, including Indigenous courts, will be examined, as will the legal profession and legal oversight and accountability. Specific areas of law that will be introduced include criminal law, contract law, tort law, family law, administrative law, and Indigenous law.

Prerequisites

English Studies 12, English First Peoples 12, or equivalent

Transfer Credits

Explore transfer credit opportunities by visiting the BC Transfer Guide (<http://www.bctransferguide.ca>)

