HAID 102 Intro to Haida Language Conversation II

3 Credits

This course is a continuing introduction to basic Haida for students with some experience with the language. Students will continue to develop their reading, writing and listening skills while acquiring a vocabulary of approximately 150 additional words. Students will practice everyday conversational phrases including greetings, leavetakings, compliments, exclamations and other phrases for conversational management, as well as many of the core concepts of Xaad Kill grammar. This course can be taught in either the Old Massett dialect (Xaad Kil) or the Skidegate dialect (Xaayda Kil).
