

SSW 112

SSW 112 Interpersonal Communication

3 Credits

This course introduces the student to the basic processes and content of effective communication. Effective communication is the foundation of success in working with others. Various concepts will be learned such as self-concept, perception, emotions, language, non-verbal communication, listening, communication climate and managing interpersonal conflict. Student will examine their interpersonal communication knowledge with respect to working with people. This course introduces the student to the basic process and content of effective interpersonal communication. Effective communication is the foundation of success in working with others. Various concepts will be learned, such as, self-concept, perception, emotions, language, non-verbal communication, listening, communication climates, and managing interpersonal conflict. Students will examine their interpersonal communication knowledge and skills with respect to working with people.

Prerequisites

English Studies 12, English First Peoples 12 or equivalent, ENGL 12, or ENGL 050, or ENGL 055, or satisfactory performance on CAT III test

Transfer Credits

Explore transfer credit opportunities by visiting the BC Transfer Guide (<http://www.bctransferguide.ca>)

