

ACCESS TO PRACTICAL NURSING

The Access to Practical Nursing (APN) program is a bridging program that recognizes the completion of the Health Care Assistant Program and related work experience. Graduates of the program can apply to write the Canadian Practical Nurse Examination (CPNRE) for licensure as Licensed Practical Nurses (LPNs). The CMTN Practical Nursing Access program meets or exceeds all Provincial education competencies required for Licensed Practical Nurse graduates and is accredited through British Columbia College of Nurses and Midwives (BCCNM).

Pre-requisite dates

Practical Nursing Anatomy and Physiology PNUR 103 is a pre-requisite for the program. Equivalent online courses are available through other institutions.

The next PNUR 103 (<https://catalogue.coastmountaincollege.ca/search/?P=PNUR%20103>) offering through CMTN will start September 7th 2022 and will be delivered over 10 weeks. Students will attend instructor led classes, in an online setting, Wednesdays 7pm-9pm with an additional 4 hours of self-directed work expected each week. This course is subject to enrollment.

Applicants enrolled in PNUR 103 (<https://catalogue.coastmountaincollege.ca/search/?P=PNUR%20103>), or an equivalent course, can be conditionally accepted to the Access to Practical Nursing program. The pre-requisite must be successfully completed (with a grade of 65% or better) before the program begins.

Please see the BC Transfer Guide (<https://www.bctransferguide.ca/>) for equivalent courses.

Please inquire at a campus near you for offerings of Biology 12, English 12, and Math 11 which are offered by our Career and College Prep Program (<https://catalogue.coastmountaincollege.ca/programs/career-college-prep/>). These courses are tuition-free.
