In this course, students will learn all aspects of becoming a Parts & Warehousing Person. This includes ordering, warehousing and keeping inventory control over parts and accessories for industries like the automotive, commercial transport, heavy duty, marine and warehousing sectors. A Parts & Warehousing Person is often responsible for receiving goods and sorting incoming parts, supplies and materials in a warehouse atmosphere, maintaining shipping and receiving records on the amount, kind and location of parts and supplies shipped or received, processing purchases, and reconciling inventories with physical counts. Upon successful completion, students will receive ITA Certificate of Completion, Level 1 Technical Training and 300 work-Based training hours.
